IS W. E. D. IN CONTEMPT?
E. S. Stokes Takes Retaliatory Measures in Supreme Court.
 A motion was made before Justice Ingraham, of the Supreme Court, to-day, by George Putnam Smith, counsel for E. S. Stokes, as receiver of the Hoffman House Company, to punish W. E. D. Stokes for contempt of Court.
 The application was made on the ground that W. E. D. Stokes had bein the New Jersey Supreme Court, and had him adjudged in contempt for failure to produce the books of the Hoffman case, which he had been ordered to produce by Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, not to do so.

After the trial of W. E. D. Stokes had begun the proceedings in New Jersey knowing that E. S. Stokes was one of the members of the grand jury from the Supreme Court of New York. "He took with him," said Lawyer Smith, "one of the reports of the grand jury in the papers the fact that E. S. Stokes had been adjudged in contempt."

Chief Justice "Big Boy" Tracy said Gen. Tracy, "It is because the matter got into the newspapers that you want my client punished."

"It must be understood," said Justice Ingraham, "that this Court is not bound on one side of its receivers any more than it is to punish a receiver for an attack upon a newspaper."

After the argument had been completed, Justice Ingraham said he was of the opinion that no resident of this State had been appointed as another State appoints the receiver appointed by the courts of this State, and that in so doing he was in violation of the constitution.

He said, however, that he would postpone his decision in the matter until the next day, when he would counsel for W. E. D. Stokes might withdraw the contempt proceedings against E. S. Stokes in the New Jersey Supreme Court.

EMBEZZLER OF $25,000.

Trusted Employee of a Springfield Bank Goes Wrong.

(By Associated Press.)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 21.—E. C. Knappe, bookkeeper of the Chicopee National Bank of Springfield, and one of its most trusted employees, is an embezzler.

The second floor. Shortly after 8 o'clock this morning, Margaret McGovern, the old maid, of Chicopee, was awakened at 9 o'clock. "On going into the middle room she discovered her husband's body lying on the floor," she said, "in a faint. He had placed a noose around his neck and, by standing on a chair, attacked it with his wood work and kicked the chair away and was choked to death."

Mr. McGovern cut the body down and notified the police. Coroner Kene will hold an inquest.
